Eco-chic - The 100% natural choice, made from hand-crafted paper with pressed flowers and grasses...

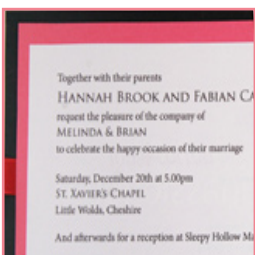

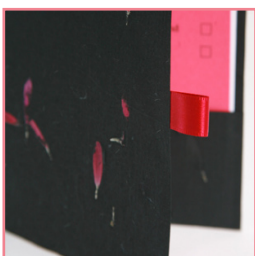

In 100% hand made and recycled papers, this stunning hand cut wallet comes in a range of fabulous floral finishes (too many to picture here!).

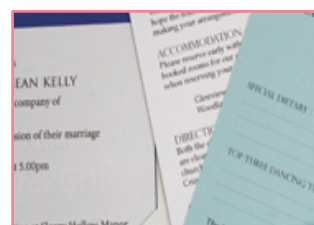

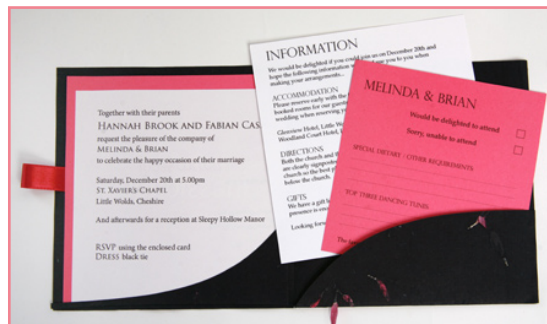

The wallet is complete with co-ordinating recycled card invitation insert, envelope, RSVP and information cards.

Finished with a double-faced satin ribbon tag in complementary colours.

See page 3 for further details and you'll find prices on page 4

Available in black and pink, white and red and white and blue, (pictured) or choose from a huge range of floral papers and recycled cards to match your own colour scheme.

Provence - Tactile papers in warm shades with just a touch of shimmer, and a certain je ne sais quoi...

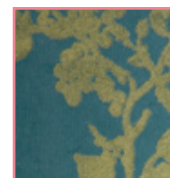

This luscious flock wallet comes with a separate invitation on iridescent card, which is also backed in flock paper, creating a really luxurious feel.

Comes with co-ordinating envelope, RSVP and information cards and a very handy Reminder Card, which can be used as a diary or book marker. We've thought of everything!

Finished with co-ordinating satin ribbon.

Flock finish is available in blue, beige or burgundy or choose from our wide range of papers to match your own colour scheme.

Reduce, Re-use, Recycle...

We're doing our bit to be good to the planet, using natural inks, recycled print cartridges, paper and card in making your stationery wherever possible. Scraps are used in our ©Little Gifts of Feeling and cut offs are incorporated into smaller items like place name cards and reminder cards. The little bitty pieces that remain are popped in the recycling bin each week. If you'd like us to make confetti with yours, just let us know!

Further Details...

We offer two options in each of our off the shelf styles, an invitation pack (wallet, invitation card, information card, RSVP card with pre-printed address, envelope and return address label) or the full suite (all the contents of the invitation pack, plus an order of service, menu card, placecard and thank you card).

We can also make “Save the Date” cards, table plans and guest books to match any of our off the shelf designs.

Invitation Pack

These fabulous wallets contain your wedding invitation and also come with an information card and RSVP card.

Available in a range of swanky fonts, the invitation can be worded as casually or formally as you like and matches all your other stationery. You also get an envelope to send the wallet in - we'd hate it to get spoilt in the post - and return address labels to make it all easy.

RSVP card with pre-printed address

These easy-peasy RSVP cards have your address printed on the front and your choice of text on the back indicating whether invitees can come (i.e. “David and Joanna: would be delighted to attend/are sadly unable to attend”), so all they have to do is tick a box, stick on a stamp and pop the card in the post! Ideal for lazy guests...

Information card

With everything guests need to know about the day, this card can include anything from a map of the church and directions to the reception, to airline details and where to find your wedding list (because who doesn't love presents?). Also, once your guests have RSVPd, they'll still have their invitation and crucial instructions handy in a gorgeous, hard-to-lose wallet.

Stationery Suite

Includes everything in the Invitation Pack, plus:

Order of Service

Reflecting whatever sort of ceremony you've chosen for your special day, the order of service will help your guests know when to sit down, stand up and say “Aw – doesn't she look lovely!”.

Menu card

Tantalise your guests with the deliciousness in store! You can choose from tall menu cards to decorate the table, smaller square cards for each guest or even scrolls for that Roman banquet touch.... We can also incorporate message to guests, from “Do take lots of photos!” to “No dancing on the tables please”.

Place Name card

Make sure everyone knows where they're sitting, who they're next to and what their own name is. Made to match your menus, these placecards will add a splash of colour to the table and co-ordinate with the rest of your scheme. You could also use our “Little Gifts of Feeling” instead of a traditional card – put each guest's name on the tag, and they're a wedding favour and placecard in one!

Thank You card

Gorgeous matching cards that will make the gigantic task of thanking all your guests a pleasure rather than a chore – honest. Envelopes are included, as are happy memories of the fantastic time that was had by all.

Looking for the perfect wedding favour? Give a ©Little Gift of Feeling ©Little Gifts of Feeling are handmade in Hackney with lots of love and affection, using the skills and talents of local people with learning disability (a.k.a. The Chain Gang).

The colourful bags are sewn by London-based seamstresses and tailors, using locally sourced silks, cotton and ribbon and are filled with special ingredients*, symbolic of the different feelings in the range, (which is always growing and currently includes Happiness, Love, Luck, Strength, Friendship, Lust, Thanks, Celebration and Christmas Cheer...).

Then we print, cut, fold and punch (but not violently!!!) the tags, which are the finishing touch, containing details of what's inside (and why) as well as space for you to write your own message or print your guests' names.

We'll happily make Little Gifts of your own feeling to order for you, in your own colour scheme, at no extra cost. Please contact us to find out more.

*Ingredients include (but are certainly not limited to...)

a marble - in case you lose yours... a coin - so you'll never be broke... a sweetie - coz that's what you are... a kiss - coz somebody loves you... and many, many more!
