

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 01, 2007

Share the Feeling Productions is pleased as punch to announce the re-launch of our website with a spanking new look for Summer.

Come and visit at www.sharethefeeling.co.uk to see the smartest, shiniest, most sparkling us we've ever been! You can now buy our goodies direct from the website for the first time and we're so excited we might just burst...

As well as a fabulous new design, we've added lots more photos of our stunning invitations and event stationery to help you get a feel for what we do, plus lashings of fun content and new functionality. So while you're online, you can:

- + See our ravishing range of off-the-shelf wedding stationery; with Luxe, Provence, Classic and Eco-Chic to choose from, there's something special to suit every bride.
- + Check out some of the gorgeous bespoke stationery we've created for every kind of event from bar mitzvahs to birthdays, and get in touch to see what we can do for you.....
- + Buy one (or lots!) of our ©Little Gifts of Feeling*, which are handmade in Hackney with lots of care and attention, by people with learning disabilities. Doesn't someone you know deserve a Little Gift of Thanks?
- + Buy our fabulous "Bling Cards", handmade in sumptuous glossy black card and studded with sparkling crystals; just because you're worth it. Blank inside for your own memorable message, we have designs for every occasion – buy the whole set and get an extra one free!
- + Sign up for Chain Mail, our brilliant quarterly newsletter - consider it a little bundle of joy every three months! (We promise not to spam you, sell your details or do anything else that makes you go grrrrr).
- + Read Hansa's Diary; Hansa's the chief of the Chain Gang, all-round Useful Chick and keeps us all working hard.
- + Put a smile on our faces by sending a joke to hello@sharethefeeling.co.uk; we might even send you a prize.

For more information, pictures and shenanigans, just VISIT THE WEBSITE! Really – it's all there! But if all that online goodness still isn't enough for you, you can also contact us the old-fashioned way.....

Ends

For images and further details, please contact

Angie Gough

t: +44(0)20 7254 7588

m: +44(0)7817 920 132

w: www.sharethefeeling.co.uk

e: angie@sharethefeeling.co.uk

Notes for Editors:

Share the Feeling Productions

- + Based in Hackney, East London, Share the Feeling Productions custom creates gorgeous invitations and little gifts for special occasions
- + The company employs local people with learning disabilities, who are known as “The Chain Gang”
- + Clients include BBC Children in Need, Diva Events, Siobhan Craven-Robins Weddings, Austique and Bee Bee Developments

©Little Gifts of Feeling

The contents of these handmade cotton bags symbolize love, happiness and luck, with magic ingredients like: marbles – in case you lose yours... magic dust – to give you extra sparkle... a kiss – because somebody loves you... a smile – to spread the happiness! Our ©Little Gifts of Feeling make fantastic party bags, wedding favours and are the perfect gift when a card just won't do.

Handmade in Hackney with the skills and talents of the Chain Gang (our team of employees with learning disabilities) from locally sourced ingredients, using bags sewn by London seamstresses, you can feel as good about buying them as your friends and family will about receiving them!